St Marcellinus and St Peter, Martyrs 2nd June. They were both martyred around the year (+304). St Marcellinus was a zealous priest and St Peter an exorcist (one of the minor orders). They were beheaded under Diocletian. One tradition says their executioner subsequently became a Christian and related the story of their martyrdom to Pope St Damasus. Their names are included in the Roman Canon (eucharistic Prayer 1).
 5th June St Boniface (c.673-c754) was born in Devon. He joined a Benedictine monastery early in life and evangelised much of Southern Germany. He was martyred in Frisia and buried in Germany.
